Our day begins

FOREWORD

This is our aim: to picture a typical day at Silk Hope. No day is really typical, but every day is interesting and most of them are happy. We study ---honestly we do; we learn---at least most of the time; we play---perhaps too often; and, now that school is almost over, we find that we cherish every hour.

We invite you to share with us a day at a place we love.

AND SURROUNDING US IS THE CONSTANT

REMINDER OF THE OPPORTUNITIES THAT ARE OURS

DEDICATION

As an expression of appreciation for what she means to us, we, the Senior Class of '59, dedicate this volume of "The Eagle" to our advisor, teacher, and friend.

Long after we have left the halls of Silk Hope, memories of our school days in Mrs. Mogle's homeroom will remain in our hearts. She has always been willing and even eager to give of her time and energy to make our years at Silk Hope more profitable. Words of encouragement when they are needed, expert guidance, and an unending sense of humor; these are only a few ways she will be remembered.

It is with a sense of pride that we dedicate this annual to . . . Mrs. Edith G. Mogle.

ANNUAL STAFF

The Eagle may look small to you, but it has been a big undertaking for us. The clicking of cameras, afternoons after school, bright inspirations, and endless typing----- all these went into the making of our annual.

We were "pushed off" from our August meeting at Mrs. Mogle's home; but even so, Billy Joe's car refused to co-operate. Fortunately, with the opening of school, events moved more smoothly and here it is-----an accomplished fact.

Everyone has been most co-operative: Mr. & Mrs. Jerome Johnson, who allowed us to use their lovely home for feature pictures; our advertisers, who were always courteous, and who usually said "yes"; and our principal and teachers, who bore "picture-day" disruptions with patience.

CHEER UP, SENIORS! IT'S ALMOST TIME FOR THE BELL.

Larry Johnson, president; Ruby Campbell, vice-president; Betty Perry, secretary-treasurer.

CLASS POEM

I know in years to come, as we turn the pages back,
The night will come to mind, when the boys pulled the sack.

But their higher education had at last begun;
It doesn't pay to argue with the man who holds the gun.

Oh we know that we've ascended on wisdom's golden stair
But we almost stopped climbing in the "bullet" at the fair.

Our boys were perfect gentlemen, supassing all by far,
But memory says, "Remember that Joe ate that cigar."

We looked ahead and planned with care-- the best class in the land.
Was it Mrs. Brown who cried, "Shall we sit or shall we stand?"

In loyalty and love, we're among the honor classes.
If you ever thirst for juice, let us supply the glasses.

An enterprising class, at suppers very good:
Business really booms when Gary dips the food.

"All the world's a stage"; some acts we're a-dreadin'.
Won't all be as funny as "Headin for a Weddin'."

As we count our treasures--hoarding every ounce--
We'll perhaps remember that a Junior check can bounce.

Our heads are high, clouds are floating round.
High are our heads, but our feet are on the ground.

Poet

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1955, we, the future Seniors of 1959, started our high school days by keeping the unfamiliar schedule of our six periods. The thirty freshmen of our class chose as officers: President, Shelby Campbell; Vice-President, Lois Johnson; and Secretary, Betty Perry. Mr. Craft was our home-room teacher, and Mr. Pike was our principal.

After our three months vacation, we came back to school as sophomores, choosing the same officers that we had had our freshman year. We lost Ed Culberson, Helen Rogers, Larry and Jimmy Fuquay, but we gained Diane Beasley, leaving twenty-seven members in our class. The girls were very excited about helping with the Junior-Senior Banquet. We also had a very successful year selling magazines, which helped us out later.

Vacation time was over again and here we were Juniors. During the year we lost Diane Beasley, Martha Hudson, Sylvia Brewer, Hurlene Pickard, Phillip Hill, Nell Teague, and Lois Johnson, leaving twenty members in our class. We elected our officers as follows: President, Larry Johnson; Vice-President, Ruby Campbell; and Secretary, Betty Perry. That year we worked hard on our Junior play, "Headin' for a Weddin'," and the Junior-Senior Banquet. To help out with the expenses, we had a Barbecue Supper.

Our Senior year has proved to be a busy one. We are hoping our annual will be perfect, and we are also looking forward to the Banquet. The Senior play will soon be the main object in our minds. We have twenty Seniors; Barbara Reynolds almost upset the cart, but Calvin Johnson came along to help us out. Mrs. Mogle, as our Senior advisor, has been of great help, and we show our appreciation by dedicating our annual, "The Eagle," to her.

We are leaving Silk Hope to make our own history in the world. The knowledge we have gained here will be long remembered.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, I guess it's the gypsy in me---I don't know any other reason why they chose me to foretell the class prophecy. I will now gaze into this crystal ball to see what the future holds for this grand class of 1959.

Turn onward, Turn onward
O time in your flight
Let me see the graduates of '59
Ten years from tonight!

Wade Hackney and Billy Joe Bowers are the two most successful farmers in Chatham County, as you can tell by their large homes and farms.

As I gaze into my crystal ball, whom do I see, but Betty Lindley. She is arriving late again. She is secretary for Gary Richardson, Attorney At Law.

Faye Culberson is one of the top women of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She has been called to Silk Hope to solve the case of the Missing Erasers.

Shelby Campbell is now a physical education teacher at East Carolina College.

Say, who is that smiling nurse coming out of room 209 in Chatham Hospital?

Betty Perry, of course. Who wouldn't get sick just for her to hold his hand?

Linda Hargrove has just been elected president of the North Carolina Society of Cosmetologists. She specializes in permanent waves, facials, and, oh, yes, getting rid of double chins, too.

If you people have been reading the newspapers, you know that one of the top chemists of the day is none other than Winfred Lindley. They say he is a wizard and can split an atom to the N-th degree. Watch for big things.

Ruby Campbell is history teacher of the twelfth grade at dear old S.H.H. Yes, children, Columbus discovered America in 1492, but the world discovered us, and we made history in 1959.

My, that new filling station that Larry Johnson is building is really swell. Some people wonder how he does so well, but I would like to know if his conscience hurts him when he sells three quarts of gas for a gallon.

April's issue of Charm really disappeared from the newsstand, but no wonder, our own Melba Campbell, wearing a new Easter Bonnet, smiled prettily on the cover. She really is a lovely model.

When you really want to hear someone sing, go to the Macambo in Hollywood, where Dellene Shuskey is singing.

Now I see Jean Hudson receiving the medal as championship skater for the year.

Calvin Johnson and Steve Barth are co-starring in the movie reproduction of We're No Angels.

Frank Johnson is now manager of the Western Auto Store. He can hardly keep enough parts for the Hot Rods the boys are driving around. He complains he can't sell them any speedometers.

A famous fashion designer, Sylvia Ezzell, has recently opened a shop in Paris. Sylvia designs clothes for Queen Elizabeth and the First Lady of the United States.

Say, what's this? Buy your tickets for the wrestling match tonight. Donnie Lindley defends her Championship Title. Well, all I can say is, it should be exciting.

I suppose you wonder what this crystal ball holds for me. My, it looks interesting, but right now you can see, I am too busy with the future for my classmates.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Silk Hope School, in the year, 1959, in the county of Chatham, State of North Carolina, being of strong bodies and sound minds, do hereby make this last will and testament.

- I, Billy Joe Bowers, will my ability to get into mischief to Donald Johnson. Don't get caught, Donald.
- I, Gary Richardson, will my ability to do French to Keith McMath. Study hard and make good grades, Keith.
- I, Wade Hackney, will my position as guard on the basketball team to Joe Wright. Get down and dribble low, Joe.
- I, Frank Johnson, will my ability to lay out of class to Harold Rogers. Time it right, Buck.
- I, Winfred Lindley, will my straight A's to Darrell Bare. Study hard, Darrell.
- I, Calvin Johnson, will my ability to do Algebra II to William Buckner. I still don't know what Mr. Poston is talking about, do you?
- I, Larry Johnson, will my "glass-packs" to Ronnie James. Better take them off, Ronnie, if you haven't got $17.50.
- I, Betty Mae Perry, leave my basketball suit to Barbara Cope. You may have to take up the seams, Barbara.
- I, Ruby Campbell, leave my position as chief cheerleader to Berta Faye Johnson. Don't let the boys get on your nerves, Berta.
- I, Shelby Campbell, will my love for "Fords" to Elaine Brewer. Don't they ride good, Elaine?
- I, Faye Culberson, leave my ability to be in town four nights a week to Delette Teague. You keep the gas tanks busy, Delette.
- I, Dellene Shuskey, leave my many boy friends, that is, except one, to anyone lucky enough to get them.
- I, Jean Hudson, will my giggle to Etta Florence Wrenn. It keeps the face muscles flexible, Etta. Live it up!
- I, Donnie Lindley, will my hearty back-slapping to Mary E. Thompson. It keeps things lively, Mary.
- I, Linda Hargrove, will my typewriter with marked keys to Polly Marshall. If you learn the keys you won't have to look at them, Polly.
- I, Sylvia Ezzell, will to my sister, Rachel, next year's Senior Class. Remember, Rachel, Seniors act dignified.
- I, Melba Campbell, will my ability to go with two boys at the same time to anyone lucky enough to get by with it.
- I, Linda Dowd, leave my love for Chemistry to Judy Faye Johnson. Be careful with the chemicals, Judy.
- I, Steve Barth, will my ability to stay out of school to anyone lucky enough to get by with it.
- I, Betty Jo Lindley, leave the artistic ability that I (should) have inherited to my brother, Randy. Here's hoping you have more luck with it than I did.

We, the Seniors, do this day appoint Mrs. Edith Mogle, our Senior Sponsor, as executor of this, our first, only, and Last Will and Testament.
